2. INTRODUCTION

Adams & Adams is an internationally recognised and leading African law firm that specialises in providing intellectual property, corporate and commercial services.

With primary office locations in South Africa and branches and associate offices in a number of African countries, our firm’s leadership position as the largest intellectual property law practice in Africa, and one of South Africa’s foremost corporate, property and commercial law firms is reflected in the ground-breaking work we do and the valuable client relationships we have with many of the world’s largest corporations and organisations, as well as small to medium-sized companies.

Our Intellectual Property law practices work with clients around the globe and across many industries to protect, enforce and commercialise their intellectual property. The group offers clients a full range of legal services relating to the acquisition, enforcement and commercialisation of intellectual property rights. These services include counsel and handling of transactions in cases involving patents, copyrights, trade marks, designs, licensing, and data security. The partners and associates in our Intellectual Property Group also litigate these issues in courts across Africa. Adams & Adams is the largest IP firm in Africa and is ranked among the leading firms in Intellectual Property in the world.

Likewise, the Adams & Adams general commercial legal services practices boast competent and powerful teams that are purposed to represent clients in expertise areas such as commercial and contract law, commercial litigation, property services, public procurement, banking and finance, mergers and acquisitions, tax, exchange control, franchising, competition, labour, personal injury, arbitration and dispute resolution, among others. As a leader among law firms involved in commercial services and other corporate transactions, the transactional and litigation experience of our attorneys, the breadth of our practice and the geographical reach of our offices in Africa have allowed us to maintain a competitive leadership position, representing a broad array of public and private companies, private equity firms and financial institutions, governmental entities, and other institutions and individuals in almost every type of commercial law situation.

Adams & Adams is firmly rooted in Africa – with a tenacious belief in the economic growth potential and spirit of the continent. Our head office in Pretoria, the capital of South Africa, provides the perfect gateway through which our partners, supported by some 700 professionals and staff, render a broad range of legal services to clients in Africa and the rest of the world.

Through our associate offices and long-established networks, we serve our global client base throughout the African continent - in matters of intellectual property, commercial law, property and litigation. Adams & Adams regularly hosts a meeting of partners from associate offices throughout the continent - a network meeting designed to maintain relationships, build capacity and share information about updates on intellectual property and corporate & commercial developments across the continent.

This manual has been compiled in fulfilment of the requirements of section 51(1) of the Act.

showing authority to represent the requester and the identity of the agent);

7.2. The record/s requested;

7.3. The right which the requester is seeking to exercise or protect with an explanation of the reason the record is required to exercise or protect the right;

7.4. The form of access required;

7.5. If the requester wishes to be informed of the decision in any manner (in addition to a written decision) the manner and particulars thereof; and

7.6. The postal address or fax number of the requester in the Republic.

7.7. The request for access to information must be clearly identified as such and marked for the attention of the Chairman;

7.8. The applicable Prescribed fee as set out in the regulations to the Act must accompany the request for access to information; and

7.9. The duly completed prescribed Form C must be delivered to the Firm. The contact details of the Firm are provided in paragraph 3 of this manual.

Upon due lodgement of a request for access to information lodged with the Firm, the Chairman will consider the request and notify the requester of his decision by way of a sworn affidavit, within the time periods stipulated in the Act, stating clearly whether the request is granted or refused and advising the requester of external remedies which the requester may pursue to dispute the Chairman’s decision.

8. FEE SCHEDULE IN TERMS OF SECTION 54

The following fees will apply to all requests for access to information held by the Firm save for personal requests which will not subject to a fee:

8.1. A requestor must pay the prescribed fees (currently R50.00) before a request will be processed;

8.2. Where the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed hours (currently 6 hours), a deposit shall be paid (of not more than one third of the access fee which would be payable if the request were granted);

8.3. A requestor may lodge an application with a competent court against the tender/payment of the request fee and/or deposit;

8.4. The Firm may withhold access to a record under its control until the requisite fees have been paid;

8.5. If a request for access to information is granted, an access fee must be paid before such information is made available to the requester;

8.6. The prescribed fee structure for request of access to the records of a private body is available on the website of the SAHRC at www.sahrc.org.za

9. OTHER INFORMATION AS MAY BE PRESCRIBED IN TERMS OF THE ACT

9.1. Information or records not found

Where the Firm has taken all reasonable steps to find a record but such record is not found, or is found not to exist, the Firm will provide notification of this to the requester in the form of a sworn affidavit.

The sworn affidavit will provide a full account of all steps taken by the Firm to find the record or to determine the existence thereof; and

If the requested record is later found by the Firm, the requester shall be notified and furnished with the requested document in the manner stipulated by the requester in the application for request for access to information previously lodged by the requester (This will apply to instances where the Firm does not object to disclosing the requested information).

Where the requested record in later found, but the Chairman objects to disclosing the record to the requester, the Firm shall notify the requester of the Firm’s decision and advise the requester of external appeal remedies available to dispute the refusal of access to information.

9.2. Information requested about a third party

Where any information relating to a third party is requested from the Firm by a requester, the Firm will notify the third party of the request.

The third party will have an opportunity to grant his, her or its consent to the disclosure of the record or to make representations as to why the requested record should not be disclosed to the requester.

Where the Firm decides to grant access to the record, it will notify all affected third parties who will be entitled to approach a competent court by way of application in relation to such decision.

9.3. This manual is available for inspection at the offices of Adams & Adams; Copies of this manual may be obtained by request at the prescribed fees from Adams & Adams; This manual can also be accessed on the Firm’s website www.adams.africa and The South African Human Rights Commission website www.sahrc.org.za

9.4. Remedies available to a requester upon refusal of access

9.4.1. Internal remedies

The Firm does not have any internal appeal procedures that may be followed after a request for access information has been refused. As such, the decision made by the Chairman is final and requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Chairman.

9.4.2. External remedies

A requester that is dissatisfied with the Chairman’s decision may, within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a competent court for relief.

Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with the Chairman’s decision may, within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a competent court for relief.

For purposes of the Act, the courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court with similar status.
