2. INTRODUCTION

Adams & Adams is an internationally recognised and leading African law firm that specialises in providing intellectual property, corporate and commercial services.

With primary office locations in South Africa and branches and associate offices in a number of African countries, our firm's leadership position as the largest intellectual property law practice in Africa, and one of South Africa's foremost corporate, property and commercial law firms is reflected in the ground-breaking work we do and the valuable client relationships we have with many of the world's largest corporations and organisations, as well as small to medium-sized companies.

Our Intellectual Property law practices work with clients around the globe and across many industries to protect, enforce and commercialise their intellectual property. The group offers clients a full range of legal services relating to the acquisition, enforcement and commercialisation of intellectual property rights. These services include counsel and handling of transactions in cases involving patents, copyrights, trade marks, designs, licensing, and data security. The partners and associates in our Intellectual Property Group also litigate these issues in courts across Africa. Adams & Adams is the largest IP firm in Africa and is ranked among the leading firms in Intellectual Property in the world.

Likewise, the Adams & Adams general commercial legal services practices boast competent and powerful teams that are purposed to represent clients in expertise areas such as commercial and contract law, commercial litigation, property services, public procurement, banking and finance, mergers and acquisitions, tax, exchange control, franchising, competition, labour, personal injury, arbitration and dispute resolution, among others. As a leader among law firms involved in commercial services and other corporate transactions, the transactional and litigation experience of our attorneys, the breadth of our practice and the geographical reach of our offices in Africa have allowed us to maintain a competitive leadership position, representing a broad array of public and private companies, private equity firms and financial institutions, governmental entities, and other institutions and individuals in almost every type of commercial law situation.

Adams & Adams is firmly rooted in Africa – with a tenacious belief in the economic growth potential and spirit of the continent. Our head office in Pretoria, the capital of South Africa, provides the perfect gateway through which our partners, supported by some 700 professionals and staff, render a broad range of legal services to clients in Africa and the rest of the world.

Through our associate offices and long-established networks, we serve our global client base throughout the African continent - in matters of intellectual property, commercial law, property and litigation. Adams & Adams regularly hosts a meeting of partners from associate offices throughout the continent – a network meeting designed to maintain relationships, build capacity and share information about updates on intellectual property and corporate & commercial developments across the continent.

This manual has been compiled in fulfilment of the requirements of section 51(1) of the Act.

4. SECTION 10 GUIDE TO THE ACT IN TERMS OF SECTION 51 (1) (b)

The Act grants a requester access to records of a private body, if the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. If a public body lodges a request for access to information with the Firm, the public body must be acting in the public interest.

Requests in terms of the Act shall be made in accordance with the prescribed procedures, at the rates provided and gazetted by the Minister from time to time. The applicable forms and tariffs are specified in the Act.

The Information Regulator has, in terms of section 10(1) of PAIA, as amended, updated the PAIA Guide, as initially compiled by the SAHRC. The purpose of the Guide is to provide information that is needed by any person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in PAIA and POPIA.

This Guide will specifically assist a person, also called a data subject, on how to access his/her or its personal information in terms of section 23 of POPIA.

Requesters are referred to the Section 10 Guide which will contain information which will be of assistance to the requester for the purposes of exercising their Constitutional Rights.

The Section 10 Guide is available in each of the official languages from the office of the Information Regulator whose contact details are listed out below:

7. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT, 2013

Insofar as the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013, is concerned—

BASIS AND PURPOSE FOR PROCESSING PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Firm may process personal information:

- to provide services to clients;
- to comply with legal or regulatory obligations;
- if a data subject has provided their consent; or
- if the processing is allowed by law.

The purposes for which the Firm processes personal information include, but are not limited to:

- marketing and promotion of the Firm's services;
- providing and improving services to clients;
- improving users' experience when using the Firm's websites;
- communicating with persons for the Firm's internal purposes;
- enabling the Firm's internal operations;
- exercising and defending legal rights.

Personal information will only be processed in accordance with the following POPIA conditions:

- "Accountability", as referred to in section 8;
- "Processing limitation", as referred to in sections 9 to 12;
- "Purpose specification", as referred to in sections 13 and 14;
- "Further processing limitation", as referred to in section 15;
- "Information quality", as referred to in section 16;
- "Openness", as referred to in sections 17 and 18;
- "Security safeguards", as referred to in sections 19 to 22; and
- "Data subject participation", as referred to in sections 23 to 25.

CATEGORIES OF DATA SUBJECTS AND INFORMATION

The Firm collects personal information in various instances, including when:

- data subjects contact the Firm or request information or services;
- the Firm provides services to data subjects;
- persons apply for employment at the Firm;
- when persons use the Firm's websites or engage with the Firm through social media.

The Firm may collect the information directly from a data subject or from third parties (such as regulators, government authorities and registries, or attorneys representing our clients' counterparties).

The interaction with the Firm on the Firm's website will result in the collection of information regarding the person's activities on the website. Similarly, when anyone engages with the Firm via any one of the Firm's social media platforms. This information includes, but is not limited to, the person's name, contact details and information regarding the matter with which they need assistance.

In the course of engaging with clients on matters, the Firm will naturally be exposed to and collect personal information which includes the data subject's name, contact details, financial information as well as information regarding the matters that the firm assists them with.

As part of its recruitment processes, the Firm collects information from graduates and employment applicants. This information includes educational information as well as employment history. By enquiring regarding employment opportunities at the Firm or applying for employment, applicants are deemed to provide their consent to the Firm's processing of their personal information for recruitment purposes, which may include screening as well as background and reference checks.

SUPPLY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Firm may release personal information or disclose it to third parties in certain circumstances. These include, but are not limited to:

- if the Firm is required or authorised to do so by law or a court order;
- in order for the Firm to enforce its rights;
- in order for the Firm to provide services to its clients.

The third parties/recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied include, but are not limited to:

- advocates and other parties involved in legal services;
- third party service providers to the Firm or its clients;
- third parties who provide research services to the Firm or its clients;
- government authorities and registries, organs of state, regulators, courts, tribunals and law enforcement agencies.

TRANSFER OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Personal information collected by the Firm may be transferred to persons in other countries. Those countries' laws might not protect personal information in the same way or on the same level as the law in the data subject's country. However, the Firm will take reasonable steps to ensure that recipients in other countries have appropriate privacy measures in place such as ensuring the necessary data transfer and protection agreements are in place.

SECURITY

The Firm takes all reasonable steps to protect and avoid unauthorised access to personal information. It has implemented various policies, procedures and software to safeguard personal information and routinely reviews its operations in order to ensure that personal information is adequately protected.

Security controls have been implemented to minimise the risk of loss, unauthorised access, disclosure, interference, modification or destruction of personal information.

These information security measures include but are not limited to firewalls; virus protection software and update protocols; access control and others.

The IT Department continuously reviews and tests the security controls to mitigate the risk of cyber-attacks.

DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS

The law might provide data subjects with rights to access, amend or delete personal information that is in the possession of the Firm. However, the Firm may, in certain instances, legally refuse or decline such requests. If applicable, a data subject may also have the right to object to the Firm's processing of their personal information or to file a complaint with a regulator. If a data subject wishes to exercise their rights, they can contact the Firm at the details provided below. The Firm may charge data subjects a fee for accessing, amending or deleting their personal information.

Data subjects are encouraged to contact the Firm in order to update their personal information as and when necessary.

REQUEST FOR CORRECTION OR DELETION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Section 24 of POPIA and regulation 3 of the POPIA Regulations provides that a data subject may request for their personal information to be corrected/deleted.

The data subject may use of Annexure A: Form 2 –Request for Correction or Deletion of Personal Information to request for the correction or deletion of their personal information. Once completed, the data subject is to follow the Request Procedure set out on section 8 this Manual.

OBJECTION TO THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION BY A DATA SUBJECT

Section 11 (3) of POPIA and Regulation 2 of the POPIA Regulations provides that a data subject may, at any time object to the processing of his/her/its personal Information subject to exceptions contained in POPIA.

The data subject may use of Annexure B: Form 1 - Objection to the Processing of Personal Information to request this. Once completed, the data subject is to follow the Request Procedure set out on section 8 of this Manual.

8. SECTION 51(1)(e) REQUEST PROCEDURE FOR ACCESS TO RECORDS OF THE FIRM

To enable the Firm to process a request for access to information, kindly complete the prescribed Annexure C: Form 02: Request for Access to Record [Regulation 7]

The requester must comply with the guidelines set out below, which have been set out in line with requirements of the PAIA Act, relating to the request for records:

The request must be submitted in the format of Form 2 as required and submitted to the Firm at the contact details outlined in paragraph 3 above. All requests for records made by a requester will be assisted by the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer.

The prescribed form must be completed in detail to provide clear, sufficient and unambiguous details to enable the Firm to ascertain;

- The identity of the requester (If the requester is represented by an agent, sufficient proof showing authority to represent the requester and the identity of the agent);
- The record/s requested;
- The right which the requester is seeking to exercise or protect with an explanation of the reason the record is required to exercise or protect the right;
- The form of access required;
- If the requester wishes to be informed of the decision in any manner (in addition to a written decision) the manner and particulars thereof;
- The postal address or fax number of the requester in the Republic.
- The request for access to information must be clearly identified as such and marked for the attention of the information officer; and
- The applicable Prescribed fee as set out in the regulations to the Act must accompany the request for access to information.

The request for access to records may be submitted orally under the circumstance of illiteracy or a disability of the requester. The completion of Form 2 will be done on behalf of the requester and provide a copy thereof to the requester.

Access to records will only be considered after the above checks are done, thereafter the Firm will respond to the requester within 30 days with a copy of the requested record or the reason/s of grounds of refusal.

The above 30 days timeline may be extended for a further 30 days, should such a circumstance arise that an extension is needed. The requester will be notified, together with reasons explaining why the extension is necessary before the original 30 days expires.

Upon due lodgement of a request for access to information lodged with the Firm, the Firm will consider the request and notify the requester of his decision by way of a written notice within the time periods stipulated in the Act, stating clearly whether the request is granted or refused and advising the requester of external remedies which the requester may pursue to dispute the Information officer's decision.

The result and amount payable will then be communicated in Annexure D- FORM 3- outcome of request and of fees payable [Regulation 8]

9. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL

The Firm has a right to refuse access to records which a requester has requested on the following grounds:

- Mandatory protection of privacy of a third party, who is natural person, if the disclosure of a record would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about the third party, including a deceased individual;
- Mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party, if the request includes trade secrets, information supplied in confidence by the third party and financial, commercial, scientific or technical information of the third party, which the disclosure thereof would cause harm to the commercial or financial interest of that third party;
- Mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party, which if it is disclosed would constitute an action for breach of duty of confidence owed to the third party in terms of an agreement;
- Mandatory protection of safety of individuals, and protection of property where the disclosure could be reasonably expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
- Commercial information of the Firm;
- Mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings; and
- Mandatory protection of research information of a third party, and protection of research information of the Firm.

Where the Firm was unable to disclose any certain part of information because of above Grounds of Refusal, any other information that is not part of the Ground of Refusal must be disclosed.

Section 70 of PAIA contains an overriding provision where disclosure of a record is deemed to be compulsory if it would reveal:

- a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law; or
- there is an imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and
- the public interest in the disclosure of the record in question clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure.

10. FEE SCHEDULE IN TERMS OF SECTION 54

The following fees will apply to all requests for access to information held by the Firm save for personal requests which will not subject to a fee:

- 8.1. A requestor must pay the prescribed fees (currently R50.00) before a request will be processed;
- 8.2. Where the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed hours (currently 6 hours), a deposit shall be paid (of not more than one third of the access fee which would be payable if the request were granted);
- 8.3. A requestor may lodge an application with a competent court against the tender/payment of the request fee and/or deposit;
- 8.4. The Firm may withhold access to a record under its control until the requisite fees have been paid;
- 8.5. If a request for access to information is granted, an access fee must be paid before such information is made available to the requester;

11. OTHER INFORMATION AS MAY BE PRESCRIBED IN TERMS OF THE ACT

11.1. Information or records not found

Where the Firm has taken all reasonable steps to find a record but such record is not found, or is found not to exist, the Firm will provide notification of this to the requester in the form of a sworn affidavit.

The sworn affidavit will provide a full account of all steps taken by the Firm to find the record or to determine the existence thereof; and

If the requested record is later found by the Firm, the requester shall be notified and furnished with the requested document in the manner stipulated by the requester in the application for request for access to information previously lodged by the requester (This will apply to instances where the Firm does not object to disclosing the requested information).

Where the requested record is later found, but the Information officer objects to disclosing the record to the requester, the Firm shall notify the requester of the Firm's decision and advise the requester of external appeal remedies available to dispute the refusal of access to information.

11.2. Information requested about a third party

Where any information relating to a third party is requested from the Firm by a requester, the Firm will notify the third party of the request.

The third party will have an opportunity to grant his, her or its consent to the disclosure of the record or to make representations as to why the requested record should not be disclosed to the requester.

Where the Firm decides to grant access to the record, it will notify all affected third parties who will be entitled to approach a competent court by way of application in relation to such decision.

9.4. Remedies available to a requester upon refusal of access

9.4.1. Internal remedies

The Firm does not have any internal appeal procedures that may be followed after a request for access information has been refused. As such, the decision made by the Information officer is final and requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at 9.4.2. External remedies

A requester that is dissatisfied with the Information officer's decision may, within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a competent court for relief.

Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with the Information officer's decision may, within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a competent court for relief.

For purposes of the Act, the courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court with similar status.

ANNEXURE E

NOTICE IN TERMS OF THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION 2 OF 2000 RE: FEES ASSOCIATED WITH PAIA REQUESTS ARE DETERMINED BY THE REGULATIONS ONLY AND NOT THROUGH OTHER APPLICABLE LAWS OR POLICIES

This Notice serves to state that the South African Human Rights Commission (the Commission) hereby confirms that the costs associated with all requests made under the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (PAIA) are determined by the Regulations relating to PAIA only, and not by any other laws or regulations. Therefore, any demands made by a public or private body for the payment of additional fees with respect to PAIA requests are invalid.

The Commission is an independent public body currently mandated under PAIA to monitor the implementation of the Act. In accordance with its responsibilities to ensure compliance with PAIA, the Commission issues this notice to bring clarity to all interested parties that it is only the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development who has the power to make decisions regarding fees associated with PAIA requests. The Commission further confirms that Value-Added Tax (VAT) is only payable by institutions who have registered as VAT vendors.

1. The Promotion of Access to Information Act

PAIA gives effect to the constitutional right to access of information, as provided for under section 32 of the Constitution. Although responding to requests and reproducing records in an accurate and orderly manner takes time and resources, section 9 of the Act specifically calls for the establishment of mandatory mechanisms and procedures to ensure that access to records of both public and private bodies is "as swiftly, inexpensively and effortlessly as reasonably possible." [emphasis added]. Furthermore, section 92 of the Act grants the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development the power to make regulations pertaining to fees associated with requests made to both public and private bodies.

2. Regulations to PAIA

In February 2002, the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development published a schedule of fees for PAIA requests in the Gazette, which provided for the following:

Fees for Requesting Records

Requesters are required to pay a fee for requesting access to records from both public and private bodies. The fee for requesting records from a public body is R35, while the fee for requesting records from a private body is R50. It is important to note that people who are requesting access to their personal information are exempt from paying a fee. Furthermore, people who earn less than R 14.712 per annum (if single) and R27.192 per annum (if married or have a life partner), are also exempt from paying the request fees.

3. Fees for Accessing Records

Requesters are also required to pay fees for accessing the records of public and private bodies, which include fees associated with the search for, preparation of, and reproduction of documents. The breakdown of fees for requests to both public and private bodies are as follows:

Public Bodies:

- Copy per A4 page - 60 cents
- Printing per A4 page - 40 cents
- Copy on a CD - R40
- Transcription of visual images per A4 page - R22
- Copy of a visual image - R60
- Transcription of an audio recording per A4 page- R12
- Copy of an audio recording - R17
- Search and preparation of the record for disclosure -- R15 per hour or part thereof, excluding the first hour, reasonably required for the search and preparation
- Actual postage fee

Private Bodies:

- Copy per A4 page - R1.10
- Printing per A4 page - 75 cents
- Copy on a CD -- R70
- Transcription of visual images per A4 page - R40
- Copy of a visual image - R60
- Transcription of an audio recording per A4 page- R20
- Copy of an audio recording - R30
- Search and preparation of the record for disclosure - R30 per hour or part thereof, excluding the first hour, reasonably required for the search and preparation
- Actual postage fee

4. Registered VAT Vendors

The Commission further confirms that Value-Added Tax (VAT) is only payable by institutions who have registered as VAT vendors, as required under section 23 of the Value- Added Tax Act of 1991.
